

Samoset Council
Outdoor Ethics Guide
Orientation
(For Youth)

This is designed for the troops outdoor guide (OEG) position. The OEG's primary duty is to help your troop work towards reducing scout impacts on their outdoor activity. Adults may take this course as well. Both adults and youth will earn the Outdoor Awareness Award. This course is designed to help you understand what your role is and how to have fun teaching others in the pack, troop or crew through about games, songs, tricks, puzzles, and other things.

You will learn more about the duties of being the Outdoor Ethics Guide and help your troop earn the Outdoor Ethics Award. At the end of the day you will have earned the Outdoor Ethics Awareness Award and parts of the Outdoor Action Award.

Dates – Saturday, April 18, 2020

Location – Check in at Camp Phillips, Weston

Time – 9:30 until 3:00 Saturday

Cost – $ 15.00 per person. Included are lunch & training materials

To be completed prior to class:

- Recite from memory and explain the meaning of the Outdoor Code.
- Watch the National Park Service Leave No Trace video.
- Complete the Leave No Trace online course . Print the certificate.
- Complete the Tread Lightly! online course . Print the certificate.

For more information please contact

Master Educator – Miki Gould, Irishgem1972@gmail.com 920-740-0098

To register for this event go to www.samoset.org and select the calendar for April to find the event title, 2020 Outdoor Ethics Guide Orientation Course. To help with planning and insure that there are materials for you please register by March 25th.